

Energy Resources Vocabulary

1. Law of Conservation of Energy – states that energy cannot be created or destroyed but it can be changed from one form to another
2. Energy resources – a natural resource that can be converted into other forms of energy in order to do useful work
3. Renewable resources – a natural resource that is replaced more quickly than they are used
4. Nonrenewable resources – a resource that cannot be replaced or is replaced much slower than it is used
5. Fossil Fuels – a nonrenewable resource that formed from the remains of organisms that lived long ago
6. Sustainable - not overusing or damaging natural resources so they can continue to be available
7. Availability - how difficult it is to access a certain resource
8. Energy Resource Conservation - the practice of caring for these resources so all living things can benefit from them now and in the future

Energy Resources Vocabulary

1. Law of Conservation of Energy – states that energy cannot be created or destroyed but it can be changed from one form to another
2. Energy resources – a natural resource that can be converted into other forms of energy in order to do useful work
3. Renewable resources – a natural resource that is replaced more quickly than they are used
4. Nonrenewable resources – a resource that cannot be replaced or is replaced much slower than it is used
5. Fossil Fuels – a nonrenewable resource that formed from the remains of organisms that lived long ago
6. Sustainable - not overusing or damaging natural resources so they can continue to be available
7. Availability - how difficult it is to access a certain resource
8. Energy Resource Conservation - the practice of caring for these resources so all living things can benefit from them now and in the future